

BUILDERS DINNER . . . Recent builders dinner at Southern California Gas Company's Inglewood office building featured Oriental-Hawaiian cooking demonstration by Vicki Pellerito, home economist for the utility. The dinner was attended by more than 25 southwest builders and their wives.

SCHOLARS . . . North High's Saxon Scholar team defeated Garden Grove High School during a television appearance last Saturday afternoon on the "Scholarquiz" program. Shown here are three members of the Saxon team who scored a total of 86 points on the half-hour quiz. Stuart Goodgold, John Krone, and Craig Dearden teamed with Mary Fouquette to defeat the Garden Grove scholars.

Chipmunks, Squirrels Not Pets, Warns Health Officer

Pet stores in Los Angeles County are selling chipmunks and squirrels for pets illegally, according to Dr. K. H. Sutherland, Los Angeles County Health Officer.

Dr. Sutherland warned the practice, besides being illegal, is also a hazard to the buyer. The small animals may possibly be carriers of infected fleas that may transmit organisms which cause bubonic plague or typhus fever, he added.

An ordinance, passed in 1939, prohibits the sale, importation, exportation, and transportation of chipmunks, golden squirrels, and other wild rodents in the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County.

Dr. Sutherland warned individuals are unwise to purchase or catch the small wild animals for use as pets. They may appear healthy, he said, but still be the means of transmitting disease germs.

Board Approves Street Changes

New paving, curbs, and gutters to improve area drainage and increase efficiency of the easterly side of Lambertson Avenue north of Dominguez Street, including work along a portion of Dominguez Street has been authorized by the Board of Supervisors. Improvement allocation is $6,500.

The board also granted $1,500 for improvement of the westerly side of 220th Street near Wilmington Avenue in cooperation with a subdivision improvement in which developers will share in street costs.

Backwards Dance Set

Leap year is in full swing at North High this year, and the girls are out to take advantage of the old tradition.

The girls are getting a helping hand from the Girls Athletic Assn., which is sponsoring its annual backwards dance. The dance will be held tomorrow from 8 p.m. until midnight in the Saxon gym. "Moonlight Magic" is the theme of this year's dance, and Saxon girls have been busy all week asking their favorite fellas to the dance.

Joyce Weekly and Judy Waters head the dance committee, with Sandy Bramlett, Janis Seamon, Vickie Roop, Jeanne Kawaguchi, and Judy Towell in charge of other activities connected with the evening.

Tri-Hi-Y Girls Plan Car Wash

Girls in the Daffodils Tri-Hi-Y will hold a car wash at Arlington Avenue and Sepulveda Boulevard Saturday at 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Funds raised through the car wash will be used to take orphans to Disneyland for a day.
